British Periodical Literature.

REPUBLICATION OF

The London Quarterly Review,

The Edinburgh Review,

The North British Review,

The Westminster Review,

—AND—

Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine.

The wide spread fame of these splendid Periodicals renders it needless to say much in their praise. As in every age they stand far in advance of any works of the kind published, while by political complexion each is marked by independence, and rises far above, not often found in works of a party character.

They embrace the cream of the three great parties—England—Tory, Whig and Radical—Blackwood and the Edinburgh Quarterly are Tory, the Edinburgh Review, Whig, and the Westminster Review Radical. The North British Review is more of a religious character having been originally edited by Dr Chalmers and now since his death being conducted by his associates. Dr Hanna as editor with Sir David Brewster. Its literary character sustains well its high standard. The Westminster has always originated under the auspices of the Foreign Quarterly and Westminster Reviews being in fact a union of the two Reviews formerly published and reprinted under separate titles. It has, therefore the advantage by the combination of uniting in one work the best features of both as heretofore issued.

These Periodicals are reprinted in New York immediately on their arrival by the British steamers in the identical style on fine white paper and are full fac similes of the originals—Blackwood's Magazine being an exact fac simile of the Edinburgh Edition.

TERMS

For any one of the four Reviews,	$3 00 per annum
For any two do	5 00 "
For any three do	7 00 "
For all four of the Reviews,	8 00 "

CLUBBING.

Four copies of any or all the above works will be sent to one address on payment of the regular subscription for three—the fourth being gratis

EARLY COPIES

Our late arrangement with the Both h publishers of Blackwood's Magazine ensures us early sheets of that work by which means we are enabled to place the entire number in the hands of subscribers before any other can be printed in any of the American Journals. Besides this and other advantages secured in our subscription we pay so large a consideration to that we may be compelled to raise the price of the Magazine

☞Something may therefore be gained by subscribing early

John S. Sherwood,—Editor

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 1849.

☞ The Portland Inquirer and Platform, in speaking of the Protection of American labor, by a tariff of duties, says that "the staples of Maine have been left open to foreign competition under all Tariffs That of 1842, while it gave a rich advantage to manufacturing States, made us tributaries to that advantage, by allowing the Blue-noses to enter the markets of those States to barter down the prices of our potatoes, cord wood, fish, &c And this against our direct unanimous appeals

In looking at the Tariff of 42, we see that timber for wharves, firewood, rough boards staves, &c, paid a duty of twenty per cent Potatoes were charged a specific duty of 10 cents a bushel Fish, dried, or smoked per 112 lbs, a specific duty of $1 00, mackerel and herrings, salted, per barrel, a specific duty of $1,50, Pickled Salmon, per barrel, a specific duty of $2,00, other pickled fish per barrel, a specific duty of $1,00 These duties average three times greater than those of the tariff act of 1846, so that if the staples of Maine were not protected by the Tariff act of 1842, what can be said of that of 1846, since there ought to be some language by which to describe such difference, and some disposition to use such language in an examination of the subject

The Enquirer expects no advantage from the legislation of Congress, whatever party prevails A gratuitous fling of that sort could very reasonably be looked for from that source, since the existence of its own party depends upon destroying confidence in all others But it was rather more than we expected, to find the protective features of the Tariff of 1842 denied in the manner they are However a motive doubtless lurks somewhere, and that motive probably is of a strongly party character Our present purpose is answered by directing the attention of our readers to the facts and the probable motive, as there will undoubtedly be much more of the same sort, before the close of the incoming Whig administration

Washingtonian Convention.

On the 22d day of February, the Washingtonians of the county of Penobscot propose holding their annual convention in this city, for the choice of officers, and for the purpose of devising means for the promotion of Temperance — There seems to be a solid conviction resting upon the minds of the friends of temperance, that much is required of them at the present time, not only in saving from the drunkard's doom those whose feet are thitherward tending, but also in saving the community and the rising generation from the tide of misery and death, produced by intoxicating liquors Every active principle of reform needs to be put in requisition by every friend of temperance and virtue and every legal means of restraint to the sale of intoxicating liquors, needs to be applied with unfaltering energy

On the 22nd of February the friends of temperance—the whole body of redeemed Washingtonians and all who rejoice in the temperance cause, should meet in convention and in the name of the father of his country, Washington, resolve to labor anew and life-long in this great cause

☞ On Tuesday night about a quarter before 12 o clock, a fire broke out in the extensive establishment of J Stevens Abbott, coach manufacturer, at Concord, N H All the buildings connected with the establishment, with the exception of the blacksmith shop, were wholly consumed, together with a large amount of stock and tools The loss is estimated at from $30,000 to $40 000, on which there was insurance to a small amount only

☞ The Messrs Briggs, of Boston, have recently invented a table sofa, which is a valuable combination of furniture, presenting the appearance of a splendid parlor sofa, but can in a moment be changed into a large dining table, and the seat of the sofa being made to separate longitudinally, form the seats for ten or twelve persons The back of the sofa is made to slide up, and resting up on the arms, forms the top of the table

☞ Lippard's Quaker City of Saturday, contains a chapter of prospective history, "the dissolution of the Union in 1862," which calls up to our mind, warnings such as the Wizzard gave to Lochiel The Southern confederacy, described as the United States of Carolina," is a home bit at our pouty little sister, and so is the flag, white, dotted with twelve black stars, and with horizontal stripes of intermingled black and red

☞ The City Advertiser shows many of the advantages which would result to this city from the completion of the railroad from here to Waterville We like that, and while the road is in the process of construction, our capitalists and mechanics should be exerting themselves to develop and bring into practical use the natural resources of our city and vicinity for extensive manufacturing

☞ A Post Office has been established at Salmon Falls, Strafford County N H, and J P Emerson Esq appointed Postmaster,—All Letters addressed Salmon Falls,' or 'Salmon Falls, (South Berwick) or 'Salmon Falls, Somerworth, should be mailed to 'SALMON FALLS, N H'

☞ A man in our county a short time since sold his farm for $2,000 Had he advertised it and thus let it have been known to the public that he wished to dispose of it he could have obtained several hundreds of dollars more money than he sold it for This would have been a very pretty commission for advertising

☞ Mr Atherton who brought us the late news from California is a cute Yankee and is now delivering lectures in New York up on what he saw in the gold regions and is thus making more gold than if in the placer'

Man doubles all the evils of his fate by pondering over them A scratch becomes a wound, a slight pain an injury, a jest an insult, a small peril a great danger, and a slight sickness often ends in death, by the brooding apprehensions of the sick

☞ The members of the Iowa Legislature, have voted themselves each, a gold pen

Sandwich Islands.

The following extracts from the reports of the Missionaries of the Sandwich Islands will show in some degree the influence of the missionary enterprise upon the civilization of the people of these Islands

Mr Lyons, from Waimea, writes that about $550 had been collected among the people of that station during the year, for benevolent purposes, besides which they had built three houses of worship during the year, and were engaged in the repair or building of others In order to judge truly of the condition of the people Mr Lyons says

'You must attend our temperance celebrations where you can see both variety and uniformity, men, women and children well clothed having hats, caps, bonnets, shoes and stockings, gentlemen and ladies, walking in procession arm locked arm in arm, displaying their umbrellas, white gloves, flying banners &c You must also attend the anniversary of our civilization societies, listen to the speeches and dialogues and civil topics, and take a look at the festival tables, their furniture and their guests You must enter also some of the native houses where you will find a decent seat perhaps an American chair, a table, a chest, a tea kettle, iron pot, and frying pan and it should chance be a proper time, you might see the husband, perhaps the wife and children all taking their meal, after the manner of civilized lands

'By going to different houses and visiting different places you will see native sailors and tailoresses, hat braiders, shoemakers of both sexes, saddle-makers, carpenters, masons, sawyers, teamsters You will now and then discover a coffee garden and a flower garden herds of cattle, horses, goats and sheep, cattle carrying burdens, instead of natives, a good yoke teaming with carts and oxen, all under native management, natives riding to meeting or school on horseback You will find one hundred and fifty families supplied with the native newspapers, and you will also find that the newspaper is generally paid for And you should pay a visit to some of our day schools, all under native superintendance, and finally, at the sound of the church going bell,' or of the shell Hawaiian horn, look into some of our meeting houses, and behold the well clad orderly, and attentive congregation elevated on seats, all made by native hands, Having seen all this, and other things of a moral and religious character, you can determine whether they indicate any advance towards civilization and Christianity, or not

'But, he adds,' there is much room for improvement, and an individual who is disposed to look only on the dark side may see but few marks of either domestic, social, intellectual or moral improvement around him

The following account of a common school celebration at Lahaina, Island of Maui, will give one some idea of the state of Society at that station There are 22 schools, and several new school houses have recently been erected In November 1847, there was a public examination of these schools, which showed them to be in advance of what they have previously been At the close of the examination, the schools at Lahaina, and of one out station united in a celebration Of this celebration Mr Baldwin gives the following account

'About one thousand children were present, all of whom sat down to good substantial kou tables, made in the best style by foreign carpenters, furnished with foreign plates, knives, forks, &c &c, and loaded with the richest dainties which the land affords, in chairs of foreign manufacture, or settees of their own, and they had their well clothed parents for waiters One person, a mere common native, once a missionary cook, set a line of tables one hundred feet in length, and killed a bullock and several hogs to supply it

'Some ten years ago, he could not have owned fifty dollars worth of property, now he has a competency, which he has gathered by steady industry, though he has a feeble constitution, and is very often troubled with the asthma and bleeding at the lungs He clothes his numerous family of children, (and they are always clothed,) he sends them all to school, he has as good a house as many Americans, he has given one hundred and fifty dollars for the repair of the church within the last two years, and is pledged to give one hundred more during the present year He is a mason by trade, has built many of our best houses, and has raised the beautiful walls of our stone church with his own hands We have many natives among us who are industrious and thriving, and are becoming good and valuable members of society, but this individual is, perhaps, one of the best specimens of them all

☞ The multitude of dogs in this city is truly surprising In Boston a bounty of fifty cents is paid for killing a dog that is not muzzled — That bounty here would open a profitable and on the whole useful branch of business

The sentence of death, lately passed upon Dr W P Coolidge of Waterville, for the murder of Edward Mathews has been commuted to solitary confinement and hard labor in the State Prison, for life

The steamship Niagara, on her recent passage from Liverpool, got among the ice on the south side of an island off Newfoundland, broke all her floats on the paddle wheels, and injured the copper on her bottom

☞ The Whigs of Arkansas have determined to run a candidate for Governor Cyrus W Wilson is nominated The election takes place on the 11th of March

☞ Geo B Hayden, the editor of the Little Rock Gazette a strong Whig paper, has been elected State Printer of Arkansas The Legislature is very largely Locofoco

☞ Flowers were in bloom at Pensacola, on the 16th ult, and the orange trees loaded with fruit

An Albany paper states that Col J T Van Allen of New York has been appointed President Taylors Private Secretary

☞ The Galveston (Texas) Civilian of the 24th ult, states that the cholera still lingered at Houston

☞ Rev Mr Hobart, formerly of this city, will deliver his first lecture this evening See advertisement in another column

What is falsehood? a poisonous tree,
Before it peace, sweet peace doth flee,
A spring, whose waters always foul
A fire, which will destroy the soul,
A compass, never pointing right,
A mirror dark and never bright
A balance full of sad defects,
A sword, to punish, not protect,
A rock, from which none are secure,
A way which leads to things impure,
A gem more worthless, none can find
A g'oomy sun that never shines,
It is, in fact, as I believe,
The serpent who tempted mother Eve

Dan Marble tells a story about a tailor, who was dunning a man for the amount of his bill — The man said he "was sorry, very sorry, very sorry indeed, that he couldn't pay it'

"Well," said the other, "I took you for a man that would be sorry, but if you are sorrier than I am, throw it quit."

Discoveries in the Arctic Ocean.

Capt Royce, a whaleman of Sag Harbor, has recently arrived from a voyage in which he has explored new whaling ground, and made important discoveries North of Behering's Straits — During his cruise in July and August, Capt R saw no ice, and the weather was ordinarily so pleasant that the men could work in light clothing, and it was so light through the night, that whaling might have been carried on during the entire 24 hours Capt R found the whales numerous, and of a different species from any he had before seen, and of three different kinds—all very tame Both the American and Asiatic shores he found inhabited by numerous tribes of Indians, some of whom he saw passing from one continent to the other, in large canoes — Good anchorage was found in most parts of the ocean, from 15 to 35 fathoms.

Capt Royce was induced to seek this new ocean by the representations of Capt Beechy, who visited this region in 1827, and describes it in his voyages —[Travellet

Killed by a Catamount.

The Lebanon (N H) Whig states that John Soule, of Enfield, near Umbagog Lake, was recently killed by a catamount while out on the line of his traps Having been missed by his companions they went in search, and found his body mangled, near the track of two animals leading from the spot His rifle lay by his side loaded and cocked The animals were followed, but the panthers were compelled to give up the chase, having become frightened by the noise they made Mr Soule is supposed to have come across the catamounts in a road, and not daring to risk a shot to have retreated, and had fallen backwards over a log, when the animals leaped upon him and killed him

Patent Office.

The Patent Office was organized in 1790, and from that time up to the commencement of the present year, 1849, the number of patents issued was about 16,200 It is an interesting moral deduction, to be able to draw from this statement the fact that useful invention has kept pace with physical want Thus the largest class of inventions have been for agricultural improvement, the second for articles of clothing, or the textile fabrics, and the economies and comforts of imparting warmth to the body

Destructive inventions have come few and far between, and the whole number has not exceeded 250 of the 16 000 and upwards which have been granted by the Patent Office A fact like this speaks well for the triumphs of peace, and of the moral turn given to the inventive genius of the country Indeed, there is no department of the public service more suggestive of interesting fact, than that of the Patent Office

New York has the honor of receiving almost one-third of all the patents granted, and New York city almost as many as the entire slave States The great bulk of the whole come from the free States, a fact which will suggest others of interest without the necessity of comment — N Y Express

The House in which Tom Corwin was Born.

A letter from an old citizen of Bourbon county, Kentucky, to a literary friend in this city, gives the following account of the old Hallock Homestead, in which was born the eloquent and distinguished United States Senator from Ohio

"I have lately visited the house Corwin was born in It is a one story log cabin, about twelve feet square, with one door and two small windows The glass, six by eight, the only ones of the sort, that I know of, any where I remarked to the widow lady who resided there 'Mrs Case, your house begins to look a little old 'Yes sir, she replied, it is old and out of fashion, but it must not be altered, while I live, for Tom Corwin was born here While she spoke, I could see patriotism flash in her eye — The birth-place of Corwin is well known throughout this region of country, it is a part of the old Hallock farm, in Bourbon county, Ky on the main road, about half way from Paris to Lexington '—[Cincinnati Gazette

Gen Shields, was a lad when he came to this country with his father—and his father having been naturalized, he was, by the same means, naturalized himself Some ten years ago, when there was a revolution projected in Canada, Shields, then a young and ardent spirit, while travelling the Circuit with a certain Judge, expressed a determination to join the Patriots — The Judge told him if he should do so, and was caught by the British, he would be hung unless he was naturalized

He did so, not that he considered it necessary to render him eligible to all the privileges that are extended to citizens of foreign birth, but because he thought it might be of service to him if by the fortune of war, he should fall into the hands of the British in his proposed visit to Canada, it might prove a hanging business for him, and advised him to be naturalized A correspondent of the St Louis Republican makes the statement in answer to the assertion, that he Gen S was ineligible to the U S Senate, because he had not been naturalized a sufficient length of time

The population of Biddeford in 1840 was 2574 In May last 5493 Since that time the population has increased, and it must now be somewhat larger Population of Saco 4,488, in 1840 In May 1846, it was 5 300 by census — At the present time it cannot be less than 6000 The population of the two towns at the present time cannot fall short of 12,000 —[Saco Union

A writer in the National Intelligencer mentions the increase of horse shoers, by means of which in the cold latitudes, an ordinary horse has been known to travel as much as a hundred miles in the short space of three hours, without apparent fatigue A fur set (he says) of these marvellous skates, bedecked in the Norwegian style, has been deposited in the Patent Office.

The Chronotype tells a story of a man who returned from California with gold to the amount of sixty four thousand dollars, which he deposited in one of the mints He took off his old tattered unmentionables and was about to throw them away, but his wife, good prudent woman, took them, and with a trifling effort she shook twenty three thousand dollars worth of gold dust out of them!

Cure for the Piles.

The following simple application will certainly cure this most distressing complaint It has been tried by many and found entirely successful

Take three ounces of pulverized alum, and place in a belt of cotton drilling, two inches in width, and wear the belt around the body above the loins It should be worn next the skin Its operation is slow but certain

John's Latest.

John Van Buren met Mr Fillmore at the time of his last visit to Albany, 'What are you going to do for us, Mr Fillmore, now that you are in office" said the hopeful heir of honor

'Do for you" said the Vice President elect, good humoredly, 'we shall do nothing—we don't know you

'Gen Taylor will certainly redeem his pledge to us,' said John

'Pledge' what pledge"

'The one he gave at Buena Vista, not to leave his wounded behind him.'—[Troy Post

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Feb 14

In the Senate—There was but little business transacted in either house, it being the day for counting the Presidential votes

The bill which passed the Senate yesterday, and was sent to the House, respecting the right of way for the benefit of railroads and canals passing through the different States, was, on motion of Mr Badger, called back

A message was then received from the House extending an invitation to the Senate to meet in convention for the purpose of counting the Presidential votes, which was accepted, and the Senate accordingly proceeded to the Representatives Hall, for that purpose On their return, a resolution was offered by Mr Davis of Mississippi, and adopted, for the appointment of one member to join the House committee of two to notify Zachary Taylor and Millard Fillmore of their election as President and Vice President of the United States Adj

In the House—

After the transaction of some unimportant business, the Senate came in, headed by the Vice President The tellers previously appointed, took their seats at the clerk's desk and proceeded to count the votes for President and Vice President

Mr Davis of Mississippi read the vote of each State aloud They stood—

For Zachary Taylor for President and Millard Fillmore for Vice President 137 each

For Lewis Cass for President, and William O Butler for Vice President, 127 each

A joint committee was then appointed to wait on Zachary Taylor and Millard Fillmore, and inform them of their election severally as President and Vice President of the United States — Adj

WASHINGTON, Feb 15

In the Senate, Mr Mason presented a resolution for furnishing certain books to Senators who may be entitled to the same—lies over

Mr Rusk presented a joint resolution, appropriating $3(?) to defray the travelling expenses of the Chippewa Indians, now here on business with the government An amendment was offered to substitute $6000 The resolution passed

The Senate then proceeded to the consideration of private bills A bill granting a pension to the widow of Col Dix, was warmly discussed by Messrs Henry Johnson and Jefferson Davis and then laid on the table

Mr King offered a resolution to inquire into the expediency of granting land to the surviving officers and soldiers who served in the last war with England, also, to the widows and orphans of such as had died since the war—adopted

In the House, Mr Cobb offered a resolution for amending the rule of the House, restricting the expenditures from the contingent fund—laid on the table

Mr Vinton called up his former motion, to reconsider the vote whereby the bill establishing a Department of the Interior was ordered to be engrossed Mr Stephens moved to lay the motion on the table—carried

Mr Smith, of Conn from the committee of rules and orders, reported sundry amendments, —one abolishing the rule restricting speakers to a certain number of minutes Mr Schenck opposed the alteration Laid on the table

A bill to incorporate the Washington and Alexandria Steam Packet Co was taken up A motion was made to lay the bill on the table, the motion was negatived, and the bill was passed

A bill to provide a mode of establishing claims against the United States came up, and the question on its passage was taken, and decided in the negative

The bill establishing a Department of the Interior was taken up and passed Mr Palfrey moved to amend, by altering the title to Home Department Mr Vinton said the title was suggested by the Secretary of the Treasury — He, however, moved in addition to the title so as to show that the bill also created an Assistant Secretary of the Treasury This amendment was adopted, also that offered by Mr Palfrey Adj

WASHINGTON Feb 16

In Senate—The Chair presented a communication from the Naval Department containing despatches in relation to Com Stockton's operation in California

A resolution of inquiry was offered in favor of increasing the yearly appropriation for the civilization of the Indians

Considerable debate was had on a resolution that the Senate should meet at 11 o clock—laid on the table

A joint resolution was submitted by Mr Underwood, for obtaining a cemetery in Mexico for the burial of soldiers and appropriating $10 000 for the purchase and improvement of the same

After a brief discussion it was laid over

The general appropriation bill was taken up and an amendment was agreed to for an appropriation of $20 000 for cleaning and repairing the Capital in the city of Washington

Mr Walker submitted a proposition in favor of extending the revenue laws over the new territories without being read it was ordered to be printed Adj

In the House the report of the committee on rules was discussed by Mr Wentworth who opposed the amendment proposed to the same He considered that the next House with a Taylor majority would be responsible for its own rules He moved to lay the report on the table—adopted

On motion of Mr Butler, the House went into committee of the whole and considered the bill for carrying into effect the stipulations of the treaty with Mexico

A long running debate was had on the slavery question in the new territories

Mr Babbinger said he felt considerable interest in this question and descanted on its merits

Mr Stuart replied to Mr Palfrey's speech at the last session respecting the churning of the negro boy He also assailed Massachusetts—said she allowed Charlestown Convent to be burned and suffered more infidels to reside in Boston than in any other portion of the country

The debate was continued by several members, till the committee rose Adj

ANATURAL
HAIR DYE!

BALLARD'S IMPROVED LIQUID HAIR DYE is the best preparation that we have ever seen for restoring the hair It will positively restore grey Hair to its original color whether auburn brown black sandy or red hair and the most natural blacks retaining the gloss and softness of the original Sandy light or red hair can be matched with any darker shade

From numerous laudatory testimonial which may be seen at the manufacturer's wholesale depot No 61 Cortlandt street New York the following from the celebrated Cristadoro of the Astor House is presented —

No 6 Astor House New York Sept 21 1848—Mr O M Ballard—Dear Sir—It is but justice to you to say that of all the preparations for dyeing hair I have tried none has answered so well the purpose as your Improved Liquid Hair Dye and with a great deal less trouble to the applicant than any other I give you this testimony with my solemn conviction that it is worthy the patronage of all who may wish to exchange gray light or red hair for a beautiful auburn brown or black and from the peculiar softness and lustre which it imparts to the hair the ladies cannot but give it a decided preference Yours respectfully

IMPORTANT TO OWNERS

LOVE'S RESEARCH ARE CURE AS UNIVERSAL CONDITION OF WELLNESS

Dr. Townsend's

COMPOUND EXTRACT OF

SARSAPARILLA,

Wonder and Blessing of the Age.

THE MOST EXTRAORDINARY MEDICINE IN THE WORLD!

This Extract is put up in Quart Bottles—it is six times the per glass strength and is warranted superior to any old fashioned Sarsaparilla, or any quack nostrum in the land.

SPRING AND SUMMER MEDICINE!

For the thousands and thousands who annually require a good purifying medicine at this season, this Extract is the best that can be used. It is the great

10 000 CASES OF GENERAL DEBILITY AND WANT OF NERVOUS ENERGY

Dr Townsend's Sarsaparilla is the wholesome permanent tonic. It does not stimulate one day and prostrate the next, but it is a healthful tonic, which gives permanent strength to the whole system—and restores the wasted energies of nature.

INVIGORATING CORDIAL,

And even as a cordial to the weak, given as directed, it is the best ever offered to the public, as it is entirely free from Cayenne and every Capsicum.

CONSUMPTION CURED

Hundreds of cases of confirmed Consumption, Liver Complaint, Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Spitting of Blood, Sore Throat, Croup, Whooping Cough, &c. &c. have been cured by this Extract, after the patients were given up by their physicians as incurable.

SPITTING BLOOD.

New York April 28 1847

Dr Townsend—Dear Sir I have been afflicted with a severe cough and spitting of blood for the last two years, and have been under the care of several physicians, but received no benefit from their prescriptions. I was induced to try your Sarsaparilla, and have taken two bottles, which has entirely cured me. I am now in the enjoyment of good health, and consider your medicine worth its weight in gold.

Yours respectfully

WM RUSSELL, 65 Catherine st

RHEUMATISM

There is only one disease that I or Thompson cures which we do not warrant, and that is Rheumatism. We have cured many very bad cases, and have never failed in a single instance to relieve in twenty-four hours. Dr Townsend's Sarsaparilla is the only medicine we use for Rheumatism, and we have sold more of it for this complaint than all other medicines in use. Yours truly

FITS! FITS! FITS!

Dr Townsend—Dear Sir I have been afflicted with Fits for the last two years, and have tried many remedies without receiving any benefit, until I was induced to try your Sarsaparilla, which has entirely cured me, and I have not had a fit since I commenced taking it. I am now in the enjoyment of good health, and consider your medicine worth its weight in gold.

Yours respectfully

JOHN BUTLER, Jr

FEMALE MEDICINE.

Dr Townsend—Dear Sir I have been afflicted with a severe pain in the side and back for the last two years, and have been under the care of several physicians, but received no benefit from their prescriptions. I was induced to try your Sarsaparilla, and have taken two bottles, which has entirely cured me, and I am now in the enjoyment of good health, and consider your medicine worth its weight in gold.

Yours respectfully
